

JUNE 8th 2014
PENTECOST SUNDAY
 The first coming of the Holy Spirit on the Church was wind and fire and the telling of God's wonderful deeds in many tongues. The Spirit also comes as many gifts for the common good, bringing peace along with God's forgiving power.
TODAY - PENTECOST OFFERING FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE CLERGY
 This collection is one of four each year to raise funds to pay the agreed salaries for the priests of the parish.
 Thank you for your continued support.

Ireland is home to Catholics from many countries and where the Holy Mass is celebrated in many different languages. Migrants leave their home in search of a better life and face the difficult experience of migration in its various forms. As Christians, let us celebrate the diversity all around us, reach out to and pray for all migrants to emphasise the unity of the human family and the values of acceptance, hospitality and love of neighbour today on Pentecost Sunday.
PRAYER FOR PENTECOST
 God, whose Spirit is known
 In the bringing together of those
 Who were once kept apart,
 You have announced good news
 In the very human accents
 And so we pray:
 Come, Holy Spirit,
 And celebrate in us that love of God in Jesus Christ
 Which need never be measured and will never run short,
 And for whose cadences you have given us,
 Without distinction, the ears to hear.

ST BERNADETTE'S CHAPEL
