FROM THE DIOCESE

Day for Life: This year's Day for Life will be celebrated in Ireland on Sunday 3rd October on the theme 'The Good Samaritan: A Model of Compassion'. In the context of the recent proposal to introduce assisted suicide, this year's message from the Irish Catholic Bishops invites Catholics to consider a more positive and compassionate response to the care of people who are in the final stages of life. "Jesus gave us the image of the good Samaritan as the model for our compassion and our solidarity with those who find themselves vulnerable and who fear being abandoned in their final illness. The Good Samaritan is one who "crosses over", who "binds up wounds" and who, most important of all "stays with" the person for as long as is required" – for prayers and the Bishops' message in full see www.councilforlife.ie
