EASTER GREETINGS

Peace be with You; the Easter greeting of Jesus! Peace is something that he gives to us, but it is also something that he wants us to give to one another. Peace is not just a vague feeling of well-being, nor is it simply the absence of war. It could best be described as right-relationship. Right relationship with God, through the death and Resurrection of Jesus, and right-relationship with one another, because we live by the Spirit of Jesus who makes us brothers and sisters.

At this time of war, which has brought suffering to so many people, we ask ourselves what happened to the Peace of Christ? I think the answer is that, when people forget about the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Fruits of the Holy Spirit wither. If we want to promote peace in the world, or in our families, or in our parishes, we begin by asking for and using the gifts of the Holy Spirit. What a difference wisdom and understanding would make, not to mention right judgement. How different the world would be if Christians had the courage to stand up for what is right and just and reverence for every woman, child and man, created in the image and likeness of God? There are people and places that we cannot reach, but we need not lose heart. The gift of peace has been placed in our hands. Let us bring it wherever we can.

Bishop Kevin

TODAY - EASTER SUNDAY - 17th April

Jesus Christ rose from the dead and opened the Gates of Paradise. This was possible because Christ is God... for nothing is impossible with God (Luke 1 verse 37). Our Lord Jesus Christ brought onto us salvation for human kind through his Passion, Death and Resurrection.

Today is a very Great Day—a Day of our Redemption.
