TODAY - Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In our Gospel, immediately after revealing that He will suffer, die and rise, Jesus is embarrassed that His Disciples were rather pre-occupied with power struggles. So, Jesus puts forward a child as the model for selfless discipleship. Often times, we only do things for people when we have something to gain in return.

Jesus reminds us that true sacrifice is borne when we empty ourselves for others with no gain/reward in mind.
