FROM THE DIOCESE

Pastoral Letter: This weekend, the Catholic Bishops of Ireland have published a Pastoral Letter called "A Hundred Thousand Welcomes?" – to welcome migrants to Ireland. As Christians, we have a responsibility to respond to the key questions of immigration across our island, and the world. This fundamental question asks, "Who is my neighbour?" and to answer this we are informed by the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:29-37). In the light of the Gospel and Catholic Social Teaching, our bishops offer this reflection on what hospitality for migrant people means in contemporary Ireland. To read this pastoral letter in full, visit www.elphindiocese.ie

TODAY - Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In our Gospel, we see in Jesus the model of genuine goodness and sacrifice, and would ourselves want to be like him. Quite unfortunately, there are obstacles which oftentimes blind our response to his invitation. To some it could be the pursuit of wealth and self-sufficiency, to others it could be 'not wanting to miss out on the world offers'. Jesus wants us to take a moment to think about what my own hindrances' could be”.
